++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Cold and dry tonight. Scattered showers on Wednesday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Any remaining showers will ease during the evening to leave a dry night with many clear spells, especially further south. Winds will remain light allowing for frost and a few fog patches to form. Minimum temperature -3 deg C (27 deg F).

Wednesday:
After a bright start for many, cloud will soon build to leave a mixture of scattered showers and a few sunny spells throughout the day. Light winds. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Remaining largely dry for the outlook with sunny spells in the mornings and cloudier by afternoon. Gradually becoming milder, though still cold overnight with frost and fog patches.
